No Opposition to Truck Rerouting

Senate Committee Hears
Local Group Support
By-Pass Bill

Senator Frank Babcock yesterday informed the local highway safety committee that the senate committee had approved the rerouting bill whereby the state department of public works would be given the power to divert truck traffic around towns.

No opposition was expressed on Tuesday at the state house hearing before the Senate committee on highways and motor vehicles on the truck diverting bill introduced by the Andover Safety committee. A number of Andover officials and residents were present to speak in favor of the bill, in addition to state engineer Copell who represented the state department of public works as being in favor. The matter was taken under advisement.

State senator Frank D. Babcock of this district who filed the bill for the local committee introduced the speakers: chairman Howell F. Shepard of the Board of Selectmen; J. Augustus Remington of the safety committee; Chief of Police George A. Dane; Mrs. A. Graham Baldwin; Edmond E. Hammond and Fred Cheever.

Mr. Remington and Chief Dane stressed the safety angle. Chairman Shepard said that several efforts had been made to secure relief from heavy trucking, but the local committee had been advised that the state department of Public Works had no authority to reroute truck traffic around a town. This bill would give the department that power, he said.

A letter was read from Judge Frederic N. Chandler, member of the safety committee, who was unable to attend because of illness.

If the bill is passed the state department will be able to reroute heavy through truck traffic over the by-pass, not only in Andover but in other communities where a condition similar to Andover's exists. Mr. Remington states that there are some 55 other communities with two available highways. An average of 15,000 vehicles pass through Andover every day, Mr. Copell stated Tuesday.

Over 600 citizens of Andover signed a petition on this matter two years ago.

Donald Carter and Douglas Howe have returned from visiting Mr. and Mrs. Carter in North Conway. They spent some time skiing on the White Mountain slopes, including Mt. Washington.

ELECTION RETURNS

Open Meeting to Be Held by Tax Ass'n

An open discussion of the town departmental budgets and the special articles will take place next Wednesday evening when the annual open meeting of the Andover Taxpayers' association will be held in the town hall, starting at eight. Booklets on the warrant, explaining the material gathered to date by the directors, have been printed and will soon be in the hands of every taxpayer in Andover. The booklets also contain rough maps showing the location of the proposed West Andover water mains and the Shawsheen diverting drain.

The coming meeting is open to every citizen in town, whether members of the association or not.

Tonight the directors will meet to discuss several of the special articles.

Library Makes New Record

During the twenty-three days that the Memorial Hall library was open in February, 8246 books were issued for home use. At Ballardvale, 678 were borrowed, making a total for the month of 8924 volumes, the largest monthly use in the history of the library. In 1938, the library has circulated 17,759 books, an increase of 3469 over January and February in 1937. The average number borrowed during February was 387, but on February 23d, exactly 500 books were taken for home use.

Chinese Clergyman to Address Guild

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Guild of Christ church will be held in the parish house next Thursday afternoon at 2.30. Rev. Edmund Hsu, a young Chinese clergyman who is spending the winter studying at the Episcopal Theological seminary in Cambridge, will be the speaker.

Plan Spring Style Show

No matter what the weather out of doors may be on March 9, in the Free church parish house it will be spring. The Woman's Alliance and the Young Married Group are planning to give a large costume tea and for entertainment they will present a spring style revue. The style show will start promptly at three o'clock and tea will be served from four to five. Mothers with young children will be interested and welcome, since there are children's styles as well as grown-ups'. Children under 10, accompanied by parents, will be admitted free of charge.

Money earned from this tea will be used for benevolent purposes.

NOVEMBER CLUB TALK ON "EMILY DICKINSON"

The literature department of the November club will have charge of the meeting next Monday afternoon. Rev. Palfrey Perkins will speak on "Emily Dickinson."

Expect Heavy Vote Monday

Tax Collector's, School Board's, BPW Race to Bring Out Voters

The town election on Monday is expected to attract a heavy vote, despite the fact that for the first time in over a decade there is no opposition in the race for selectman. The fifteen candidates for tax collector, however, are expected to attract a large number of voters to the polls. In addition, there is considerable interest in the school committee, board of public works, and tree warden contests.

All six precinct houses will be open from seven in the morning to seven at night. Returns should start coming in about eight, but the last precincts might be as late as midnight in reporting, depending on the size of the vote.

The tax collector's race provides the biggest puzzle of all, and while some names are mentioned more prominently than others by those who dare to hazard a guess, the size of the field makes it almost anyone's victory. The school board, public works board and tree warden contests all have candidates who are generally eliminated by the town's political prophets, but the winners are still very much in doubt.

Slightly Injured in Village Accident

Miss Frances McTernan of 27 Wolcott avenue received contusions of the forehead and lacerations of the chin late last Friday night when two machines collided in a skidding accident on North Main street near the Shawsheen post office. Miss McTernan was treated at the Lawrence General hospital.

Archer L. Bolton of North Andover was the driver of the car in which Miss McTernan was riding. The other car, which went into the skid, was driven by another North Andover man, Robert Boudreau.

Hymn Festival at Chapel Sunday

On this coming Sunday afternoon, March 6th, at 4.45 o'clock, in the Cochran Church of Phillips Academy, the choirs of approximately thirty churches of Greater Lawrence and Andover, the choirs embracing about seven hundred members, will unite in a service of hymn-singing. This is the first time that such a service has been attempted and it is sincerely hoped that it may become an annual event. The very best of hymns and hymn-tunes have been selected for the occasion. The united choirs will sing Kremer's Netherlands Hymn of Thanksgiving and Nicolai's, Wake, awake, for night is flying, the King of Chorales and the greatest hymn-tune ever written.

Among other hymns will be Addison's The spacious firmament; St. Francis of Assisi's, All creatures of our God and King; George Herbert's, King of Glory, King of Peace; Luther's, A mighty fortress is our God; J. Addington Symonds' These things shall be: a loftier race; Peter Abelard's, O, what their joy and their glory must be (O quanta qualia); and Watt's, Our God, our help in ages past.

The melodies will include modern English tunes, as Vaughan Williams', Sine Nomine; Percy Buck's, Gonfalon Royal; and Sir Walford Davies', Vision; Welsh tunes, as St. Denio and Universal Praise; familiar classical melodies, as the Portuguese, Adeste Fideles, Haydn's Creation, and Croft's St. Anne; chorales such as Ein feste Burg and Nun danket alle Gott; and folk-music, such as The Crusader's Hymn.

Except for the first two numbers, the congregation will join in singing all the hymns. The service will be in charge of Dr. Claude M. Fuess, Headmaster of Phillips Academy, the Rev. A. Graham Baldwin, School-minister of Phillips Academy, and the clergy of Andover. The prelude will be played by F. E. Jones, organist and choirmaster of Grace Episcopal Church, Lawrence; the postlude by J. D. Newall, organist of Christ Episcopal Church, Andover. Whittredge Clark, assistant in music at Phillips Academy, will be at the organ. Dr. Pfatteicher, Director of Music at Phillips Academy will conduct the singing.

Conservation Expert in Garden Club Talk

Egbert Hans, who designed the Dutch Village in the 1937 Boston Flower Show, and who lectured to the club last year on "Natural Beauty," was the speaker at the meeting of the Andover Garden club held at the November club on Tuesday morning. Mr. Hans used artists' landscape masterpieces to illustrate his topic "Gardening to Create Outdoor Pictures" and to emphasize the necessity of having an artist's viewpoint to achieve good composition and perspective. The ideal combination of the practical and the beautiful is attained in gardening. Mr. Hans said, when perfect horticultural specimens are set in the picturesque surroundings which nature can provide if we learn to perceive their artistic value.

THE ANDOVER TOWNSMAN

Cast Your Ballot Wisely

The town's voters have a serious and a puzzling problem before them on Monday at the annual town election. It is puzzling because there are so many candidates in the field; it is serious in that there must be no mistakes made in the final selection of candidates for the several important offices in which there are contests.

Of prime interest both because of the large number of candidates and the importance of the position is the tax collectorship. The town must be very, very careful, for this officer has to handle large amounts of money, and as has been seen in other communities, the temptation to "borrow" some of that money often becomes too great. Honesty must be put above every other consideration when voting for this office. No one who plays the horses should even be given consideration, for that is the source of many tax collectors' troubles in the past. We have been very fortunate here in Andover for two decades in having a man to whom honesty is a virtue that must never be put aside. Let us choose from these fifteen aspirants one who has the same regard for trustworthiness. Then there are other considerations. The candidate must be experienced in this type of work, for not anyone can handle this specialized job. Reliable character, business experience, and a personality that combines pleasantness with a certain degree of sternness to be employed when necessary,—but above all, honesty—those are the qualities that the voters must look for when they mark their cross in this contest Monday.

There is a large field in the Board of Public Works race also, and here again it is a position which not everyone can hold. It requires a certain amount of specialized knowledge of engineering, a certain amount of business training. Some of the candidates most certainly do not have these qualities; some do. In the latter group especially to be recommended is a newcomer to Andover's political life, Francis Zecchini. He occupies a very important position, treasurer and manager, in the well-known firm of Gutterson and Gould, and Mr. Gutterson, one of Andover's most esteemed citizens, most certainly would not have entrusted him to this position if he had not considered him to have business ability, the ability, in other words, to think out problems clearly. Also he is a man of very pleasing personality, well-liked by all his many friends. The town would make no mistake to elect Mr. Zecchini.

The three-year race on the school committee also presents a problem, with six candidates of whom three will be given, in a sense, the educational custody of our young. The many friends of Mrs. Annie S. Angus welcomed her decision to enter the campaign after her earlier announcement that she would not be a candidate for re-election. Her late entry probably makes her campaign a harder one, but she is well-known enough here in Andover to ensure her election. Fair-minded, interested, with an ability to stand on her own feet and vote for what she thinks is right without fear of consequence, Mrs. Angus has been without a doubt one of the most valuable members of a very important committee. Mrs. A. Graham Baldwin would beyond a doubt prove an excellent addition to the committee, for she has had an excellent educational background and a seemingly limitless interest in civic matters, particularly social welfare work. If elected, her best energies would be devoted toward making Andover's schools everything that they should be.

On the one-year term Mrs. Julie Musk, daughter of the late Mrs. Jerome W. Cross whose work on the school committee was invaluable, would undoubtedly prove worthy of filling the position her mother held. She too has been interested in civic affairs and she also has a fine educational background.

There is some opposition in the Board of Health race, but it is very probable that George Brown of Ballardvale will be re-elected to the position he has now held for three terms. His experience on the board has given him an intimate grasp of health matters, and he should be returned.

Possibly not all the above mentioned candidates will catch the public fancy sufficiently to win the election, but the Townsman recommends them to the voters as worthy of consideration. However, no matter for whom you vote, above all don't select anyone who is not honest, who is not capable of exercising sound judgment, and who would not fill the position to the town's best advantage.

Siftings

The safest way to guess who will win the election is to wait until Monday at midnight.

Californians, after that six-day cloud-burst, all agree that it was the heaviest mist they've ever had.

After Monday your worry will change from who's going to collect your taxes to how much he'll have to collect.

Communications

ON THE ELECTION

Mr. and Mrs. Voter:

Our personal interest calls us again to do our duty to ourselves and to the town of which we are a part. A glance over the list of candidates for the Board of Public Works, School Committee, and Tax Collector presents us with a confusing problem. However, it is not so confusing when we consider the necessity of having men and women of ability, honesty, and experience acting as our agents in public office.

We, as voters, should vote for those whom we know are best fitted to perform the duties of an office with the least amount of friction and without any unnecessary expense because of inexperience to the taxpayers of the town. We cannot afford to make mistakes at this critical time. Experience does not mean that the official has simply a superficial understanding of the work of the office, but that he knows the work. Otherwise the town loses in the process of educating the inexperienced and sometimes to its sorrow and expense.

I happen to know something about the exacting details of the office of tax collector. Very few people understand its duties. The office not only takes in money and turns it over to the town treasurer, but it must be understood that the income of the town, except water service rents, is paid to the tax collector. There are real estate, personal property, and excise and poll taxes; street and sidewalk assessments, etc. Each of these is an independent transaction, must be kept separate, and an intricate system of bookkeeping maintained. Frequent reports must be made to the State. No private business is so entailed and exacting.

Knowledge of educational methods is necessary in the School Board; understanding of construction problems in the Board of Public Works, and experience in the office of Tax Collector. Business men and industrial leaders hire only experienced men as their managers. That is what we as voters should do in selecting our town officials if we expect efficient service.

I urge the voters to give serious thought to the qualifications of every candidate, particularly to those for Tax Collector, which requires a man of integrity, mature judgment, and experience.

WILLIAM A. ALLEN

Andover, Mass.
March 2, 1938

Sidney P. White is a candidate for election to the three year term on the Board of Public Works. Born in Andover and educated in the local public schools he graduated from Essex County Agricultural School with the class of 1917 at which time he took over the management of the farm of his grandmother, the late Mrs. Charlotte A. Baker with whom he lived. His grandfather, the late George T. Baker was active in town affairs and served as road commissioner for many years.

In conjunction with his market gardening Mr. White purchased one of the largest farms in West Andover, known as the Wild Rose Farm where he is doing extensive breeding of pure bred cattle. He is one of the heaviest taxpayers of farm property in the town.

A man of high integrity, Mr. White is straight-forward and honest with everyone. He is a public spirited person, and as a life long resident of Andover, has the best interests of its citizens uppermost in his mind. His qualifications have been proven, as his many friends realize, by the constant growth of his personal business which has shown his ability as a manager.

Annual savings of about $750, with fixed charges and operating costs taken into consideration, would be made by the school committee by generating its own power, Walter A. Hall, consulting engineer informed the committee last night. The whole report was referred to the advisory sub-committee for recommendation as to the procedure for town meeting. Another special meeting will be held Tuesday evening.

Mr. Hall stated that he found from power company tests that 40 KWH was the normal peak, 25 KWH average normal run peak, and 65 KWH the extreme possible but unlikely peak.

Two projects were considered. One would have two 35KWH Diesels, the total investment being $14,662. The power company provided in the period studied 45,790 KWH for $2263. The operating cost for this demand with the Diesels would be $551, representing a gross saving of $1712 per year. Total annual fixed charges, capital, insurance, depreciation, etc., would amount to $957, the net profit on Diesels being $750 annually. The life of the plant would be 25-30 years.

The other proposition would involve some changes in the piping at the present boilers so that they could operate at the 125 pounds pressure which they are designed for. There would be one steam unit of 75 KWH capacity. Total investment would be $15,500, and the operating cost for the period under consideration $739, or a gross saving of $1524. Fixed charges would amount to $816, the net saving being $708. This would represent a 5.67% return on investment, and the Diesel return would be 5.15%. The life of the steam plant would be very much longer than the Diesel. All figures were based on a twenty-year amortization.

The power company rate to equal this saving would have to be about 3.25 cents per KWH instead of the present average of 4.94.

Remember the Andover Bakery?

This wagon is so old that it was used as one of the old-time exhibits in the town's 250th anniversary parade back in '96. The picture was taken about 48 years ago, with Alexander Hodge ready to get in to go on his daily rounds. The bakery was situated on Park street where Shea's grain shed now stands, and it is interesting to note that although the building in the foreground is torn down now, both Shea's and Pitman's next door still use the type of sign between two posts that the old bakery used. The houses are Bowman's, Dodge's, Emerson's, and Richardson's.

Approve Local W. P. A. Projects

An announcement from Washington Wednesday that the Comptroller General had approved W.P.A. projects for Andover totalling $71,115 led many to believe that a gigantic program of roadwork was to go into effect here, but Superintendent Charles T. Gilliard states that the sum covers all the road work on country roads that has to be done in Andover. The work will last as long as the W.P.A. lasts, he said, and the present local W.P.A. quota is so small that it would take years before all the work is done.

The federal government asked for a blanket project taking in all farm-to-market roadwork, and the Board supplied figures on a large number of roads. There will be no necessity of forming new projects for these roads in the future now that they have been approved. The work will be done as fast as the local W.P.A. quota can do it.

There are nearly 80 men on the W.P.A. now, and the quota is being continually added to. It is expected that over 100 will soon be on the rolls.

HOW TO PREVENT CHIMNEY FIRES

There has been a serious epidemic of chimney fires the past few months, costing the town considerable money for sending men and apparatus to extinguish the blaze. Yesterday morning Chief Charles F. Emerson stated that most of the fires occur where wood is being burned, with the flame going through the funnel and igniting the hard sooty surface of the chimney. He recommends that every once in a while those who burn wood also throw a piece of zinc in the fire to clear the chimney.

Explain Warrant and Sales Tax

Special Emphasis Placed on Articles 18, 42, 25, 26 and 32

Before a large gathering of the League of Women Voters Tuesday afternoon at the November clubhouse the articles of the Town Warrant were discussed. Since the town meeting is to be held March fourteenth, the purpose of this assembly was to acquaint the members with the particulars in the warrant in order that they might possess a better knowledge of what they were to vote for. Mrs. Harold Rafton presided, reading and giving a concise explanation of each article in turn.

After the reading of the eighteenth article, "Shall the town, on the petition of the school committee, vote to appropriate a sum of money for the purpose of purchasing and installing equipment for the central school group of buildings," Frederick C. Smith, of the school committee, was introduced, giving definite cost figures for electricity used in the school buildings. These costs have increased progressively each year since 1934, due in part, to the lighting of the new school building, lighting the gymnasium three nights a week, supplying two flood lights for the football team and installing larger bulbs. By the installation of a Diesel engine, for generating power, it has been estimated that the return on the investment would be eight percent, but another estimate cuts this figure to two percent.

Another alternative would be to install a steam turbine, for generating electricity, using the school boilers. Such equipment would require the services of an engineer, since it is operated under high pressure, whereas the Diesel equipment operates under low pressure and would carry a lower upkeep cost. If and when equipment such as is described above, is installed, it will still be necessary to have access to the power supply of the Lawrence Gas and Electric company, in case trouble develops with the school installation.

After the reading of Article 26, Selectman Roy Hardy spoke on the Zoning Laws and By-Laws, stating that a zoning plan was first considered in 1927 but was not accepted by the town until 1936. The speaker discussed fully each section of Articles 25 and 26, placing particular emphasis on Article 26 in regard to size of lots and lot frontages.

Mrs. E. Dean Walen spoke on Article 32, "Shall the town authorize the Board of Public Works to provide and maintain an Andover skating area during the cold weather and appropriate the sum of five hundred ($500) dollars therefor." She described the advantages and enjoyment our young people would derive from such a skating area at comparatively small cost to the town.

The fourth and last speaker introduced by Mrs. Rafton was Mrs. Herman

Loeffler, of the Finance committee of the Cambridge League of Women Voters who spoke on Article 42, "Shall the town instruct its senator and representatives to the General Court to vote against the sales tax bill, whereby it is proposed to levy a tax of two percent on all sale transactions."

Hurts Small Incomes

Mrs. Loeffler brought out the fact that the two percent sales tax would increase the burden of the small home owner, also of small income families. Taxpayers with homes worth from $2000 to $4000 and with incomes ranging from $1000 to $2000 would have to pay on the sales tax about twice as much as they saved on the real estate tax, that is, the home owner would pay $24 in order to save $12. She also stated in 1929, 42 percent of the families in the United States had incomes of less than $1500 a year. In 1930, 46.8 percent of all the families in the United States owned their homes.

Professor Robert Murray Haig, professor of political economy, Columbia university, stated in an address before the National Municipal League, "Any politician who has the interests of the small home owner and rent-payer at heart cannot sincerely and consistently urge the substitution of general sales taxes for real estate taxes. To propose the substitution of general sales taxes for taxes on real estate as a measure of relief for the small man is an insult to intelligence and an affront to common sense."

Following the meeting coffee was served by Mrs. Charles J. Bailey, Miss Clara A. Putnam and a committee.

The fifth meeting of the study group on "America's Stake in the Far East," will be held at three o'clock today, with Mrs. John S. Barss, Hidden Field. The group will discuss "Our Stakes in the Philippines." The sixth and last meeting of this study group will be held next Friday, March 11, at three o'clock at the home of Mrs. John S. Barss.

The program for the Voters' Hour Tuesday at 3.30 over Station WEEL, is "Consumer and Hospitalization." This topic is considered very interesting.

A. P. C. Sale and Supper Tuesday

Do you know that Spring is paying an advance visit to Andover on next Tuesday? Can you visualize a warm and colorful spring garden scene in the midst of snowy landscapes and blustering March winds?

Place: the South Church Vestry.
Occasion: Sale, Supper and Entertainment, sponsored by the A. P. C. Sorority of the South Church.

Time: Sale starts at 3.30, supper will be served at 6.30, followed by an entertainment, in the form of a one-act play, at which all Sale and Supper guests are welcome without extra charge.

Four attractive tables will vie for the attention of the friendly buyers. If the Far Eastern saying that a man finding himself with bread in both hands should exchange one loaf for flowers, which feed the soul, is remembered, the bakery table with a tempting variety of cakes, home-made breads and specialties, such as Scotch shortbread, may divide honors with the flower and plant table, which will have a spring-like display of potted plants, such as tulips and hyacinths, and cut flowers, carnations, sweet peas and many others. The gift table will have many unusual articles for the homemaker to wear, as well as use in Spring-cleaning tasks, and the candy table will attract all those with a sweet tooth.

A play, "The Wedding Present," by William Carson, is to be presented as part of the entertainment. Miss Laura Marland, coach of dramatics at Wilmington high school, has been directing the cast which includes Robert Cowen as Bob Gordon, Priscilla Moss as Carrie Gordon and Robert Crosby as Jim Dixon.

Supper tickets and reservations, which are limited to 250, can be had by calling Mrs. Osborne Sutton, chairman of the Supper Committee, and upon application to any of the chairmen, listed below, or other members of the sorority. Prompt reservations will insure against disappointment, as A. P. C. suppers have earned a considerable following.

A one-act play, entitled, the "Wedding Present," coached by Miss Laura Marland will climax the day's events. Three well-known amateurs, Miss Priscilla Moss, Robert Cowen and Robert Crosby make up the cast of the amusing play by William Carson.

Mrs. Cleveland Gilcreast heads the committees, as general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Osborne Sutton, as Supper Chairman and the following members: gift table, chairman: Mrs. Sherwood

Kelley, Mrs. George Haselton; flower-plant table, chairman: Mrs. F. Tyler Carlton; bakery and candy tables, chairman: Mrs. Roy Dearborn; supper chairman: Mrs. Osborne Sutton, Mrs. Harold Leitch, Mrs. Roy Hardy, Mrs. Harold Godfrey, Mrs. Frank Petty, and Miss Annabelle Steed; supper decorations chairman: Mrs. Richard Abbott; waitresses, chairman: Miss Harriet Newman; tickets, chairman: Mrs. Osborne Sutton and Miss Edith Kendall; entertainment, chairman, Miss Laura Marland; publicity, Mrs. Howard W. Coxon. ***

Miss Agnes Deyermond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Deyermond of High street, underwent an operation at the Lawrence General hospital last Saturday. So successfully did she go through the operation that the services of several prospective blood-donors were not needed. In addition to her father her two uncles, police officer John Deyermond and Robert V. Deyermond, fire lieutenant Albert Cole, Roy A. Russell and David Anderson, submitted to blood tests.

Miss Jaclyn Dunn, a student at Dean academy, is spending a vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Dunn of Salem street.

Horace M. Poynter, Phillips academy instructor, spoke on "Impressions of Scandinavia" at the meeting of the Lawrence Lions club Tuesday.

Miss Mary Brooks has returned from a week's visit to Montreal, where her three-act murder mystery play, "Chapter Ten," was presented on February 24, 25, and 26 by the Trinity Players, a semi-professional company whose record dates back to pre-war days. The reviews of this play by Miss Brooks, a former Montrealeur who now makes her home with her sister, Mrs. Myron Gutterson, in Andover, were excellent and large audiences were in attendance.

Mrs. Edward Towler is ill at her home on High street.

More Opposing Tariff Proposal

Henry S. Hopper and James E. Greeley will represent the Andover Service club at the coming hearings in Washington on the proposed reciprocal tariff agreement with Great Britain whereby the tariff on woolen goods would be reduced, thus hurting this section of the country economically.

Last night the Legion and the Square and Compass club voted to send letters to Washington in opposition to the proposal.

"The Mikado" to Be Presented

The Free church Sunday school will present another of Gilbert and Sullivan's celebrated operettas, "The Mikado," on April 8 at 7.45 in the parish house.

Those who were fortunate enough to witness the presentation of its predecessor, "Pinafore," by the children of the church school remember its great success, and will look forward with keen anticipation to witnessing this world-famous musical comedy.

The committee has been fortunate in securing the services of Mrs. H. Allison Morse as musical director. Her ability in this line of endeavor was ably demonstrated by her success in "Pinafore" in which she was the sole director.

The committee has secured as her assistant one who has had a wide and varied experience in amateur and professional theatricals in this country, Mrs. William Edwards, a professional dramatic coach.

The production of "The Mikado" bids fair to excel in every way the last presentation of the church school. Since this performance several years ago, requests have yearly poured in for another operetta, and only the inability to secure the services of Mrs. Morse prevented this. However the requests were so insistent that Mrs. Morse finally was persuaded to undertake this task, with the valuable experience of Mrs. Edwards to assist her in the dramatic teaching.

Rehearsals are now in progress, and the school vacation is giving everyone a chance to get organized. They are being held in the parish house, and every one who aspires to a place in this famous musical will be given an audition in order to place each individual in the part for which he is best suited.

Candidates should contact the musical director, Mrs. H. Allison Morse at her home on Summer street, or Mrs. William Edwards, Haverhill street, or superintendent of the Sunday school, Mrs. Leslie Christison, Burnham road.

The committee consists of many who are interested in local theatricals.

George Keith, treasurer of the church school, will have charge of the sale of tickets, and will also be publicity director. Arrangements will be made to give two performances of "The Mikado" should the sale of tickets warrant such action.

Grid Schedule for P.H.S. Announced

Coach Eugene V. Lovely has recently announced his 1938 Punchard football schedule. Eight games have been arranged for the team, including clashes with two new opponents, Winchester and Concord.

The schedule is as follows: October 1, Danvers, here; October 8, Reading, at Reading; October 15, Concord, here; October 22, Winchester, at Winchester; October 29, Stoneham, at Stoneham; November 5, Brookline, at Brookline; November 11, Methuen, here; and November 24, Johnson, here.

Paul McDonald, one of the 1937 team's star linemen, will captain the 1938 eleven.

A crack on the inside of a range can be mended by using a filler made of equal parts of common table salt and wood ashes, moistened with water to the proper consistency. The filler will dry hard and will be lasting.

A way to test the quality of coffee is to put a spoonful in a glass of cold water and add a few drops of lemon juice. If the coffee is pure it will remain on top of the water, if not, the water will become brown in color.

A most practical patch bag can be made from a yard or two of mosquito netting. This enables one to see the contents from the outside, and there is no necessity for emptying the entire contents to find the exact piece of goods wanted.

Sports on the Hill

Andover's final preliminary Saturday saw its teams in better form than they have been all year, with the track and swimming teams losing by narrow margins and the basketball team showing a flashy offense to beat Tech fresh 50 to 35. Dartmouth fresh edged out a 42-39 victory in the track meet, showing strength in the jumps, last events on the program. The Hanover lads won 17 of the possible 18 points in these two events. The natators lost to Harvard fresh 38 to 28, with the final event, the freestyle relay, being the deciding factor. A tow-headed youngster by the name of Smith kept the basketball on-lookers on edge by shooting them in from all angles, particularly long ones, and then breaking up the Tech offense in as fine an individual display of defensive work as has been seen on the Borden court for some time. Not until he

Stolen Car Burns; Youths Escape

A car, stolen by two youths from Lawrence, caught fire in Shawshen village Tuesday morning, and after driving it up onto the sidewalk at the corner of Windsor and North Main streets the two thieves ran off, leaving a bewildered hitch-hiker to explain to the police. The fire department extinguished the blaze in the motor, which was badly damaged.

An oil truck driver noted the motor on fire and tried to motion the driver to stop. When he wouldn't, the truck-driver forced the car to the curb and it jumped to the sidewalk, stopping short of the new Aberdeen apartments office of the Andover-Shawshen Realty company. By the time the truck-driver reached the car, the two thieves had skipped.

Andover police, headed by sergeant William R. Hickey, scoured the surrounding area but could find no trace of the thieves. The car had been reported stolen to Lawrence police.

Douglas Howe of Arundel street and Donald Carter of Punchard avenue returned from North Conway on Thursday having gone up for the winter sports.
